1. Introductions & Partner Updates;
  - a. Gillian: thanked the prom committee for ordering Spreading Sunshine lawn signs for prom.
  - b. Lisa Labella; The Center for Family Justice has a new Latinx team of five bilingual advocates, now doing outreach to six communities (Bridgeport, Easton, Fairfield, Monroe, Stratford and Trumbull). Camp Hope, which serves over 200 children between the ages of 8 and 17 who have been impacted by domestic or sexual violence, is fully staffed and the Pathway to Healing mentoring program will continue.
2. 2021 TPAUD Year in Review: What have we done this year, and what is up ahead? – See attached for full presentation.
3. Coalition Evaluation: How are we doing? All coalition members were asked to complete the coalition evaluation survey. This tool will help us with coalition capacity building and help us improve our processes. A link to the survey can be found here:
